

CHILD NUTRITION PROGRAM

The Holdenville Public Schools will operate a Child Nutrition Program that will include breakfast and lunch. The superintendent, in conjunction with the child nutrition director and with the approval of the board of education, will establish and post meal prices.

As required for participation in the Child Nutrition Programs, the board prescribes that:

School lunch be made available to all students

Free and reduced priced lunches be made available for students who meet the federal income guidelines

In accordance with federal law and United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) policy, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326-W, Whitten Building, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, or call (202) 720-5964 (voice and TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

Students who desire to do so may bring lunches from home and purchase beverages. Those students may eat their lunch in the school cafeteria or a designated area.

The superintendent is directed to prepare rules and regulations to support this policy.
